

Ms Xolelwa Olayi

Ms Xolelwa Olayi is, by profession, currently a Student Support Systems Manager at the Eastern Cape-based Walter Sisulu University.

Her passion for the education of young people has seen her enjoy a decade of experience in the Higher Education sector at different tertiary institutions, with her current role ensuring effective and efficient student online systems.

Currently an MBA candidate, she holds a Postgraduate Diploma in Business Management, a B Tech in Project Management, and a National Diploma in Financial Information Systems.

Xolelwa is an activist at heart, and through her various student leadership roles, she participated and assisted students in academic, and broader non-academic needs.