Cape Peninsula University of Technology

creating futures

Lights! Camera! Action!

The film and television industry is fast-paced, and involves the production of documentaries, television programmes, commercials, corporate videos or feature films.

As a graduate you can get involved in directing, producing, cinematography, lighting, sound production and editing.

If you enjoy the technical aspects of the industry you could get involved in camera operations, editing, sound and lighting.

You are creative and enjoy working with technology.

WHAT YOU NEED

Minimum Admission Requirements

National Senior Certificate (Grade 12) with:

- English: Home or First Additional Language (5)

A letter of motivation that demonstrates adequate proficiency in English, expresses a compelling passion to become a film-maker, a willingness to work hard and a strong likelihood of success in the film industry.

The department utilises an Admission Point Score (APS) as selection criteria once your minimum admission requirements are satisfied. You must achieve a minimum of 33 on the APS.

NOTE:

- Applicants with the highest APS scores will be considered.
- Applicants who apply for the Diploma in Film Production as their first choice will be given priority.

DISCLAIMER

Meeting the minimum requirements does not guarantee admission. This information is subject to change based on approval and accreditation of HEQSF aligned qualifications during 2018/ 2019.

Admission requirements may therefore differ between the existing qualification and the HEQSF aligned qualification. Please consult the CPUT website or faculty for updated information.
