To Whom It May Concern

I am writing to confirm that the paper mentioned below was peer-reviewed and published in Proceedings of the the International Conference on Construction Materials and Structures (ICCMATS) held from 24th to 26th November 2014 in Johannesburg, South Africa.

Rarani M. and Fore S., Quality assurance in low-cost housing construction projects in the metropole,

Proc. Intl. Conf. Constr. Matls and Strucs (ICCMATS), Johannesburg, South Africa, 24-26 November 2014, 1510-16; published by IOS press, Netherlands; Ekolu, S.O., Dundu, M., Gao, X (eds.), ISBN print: 978-1-61499-465-7, ISBN online: 978-1-61499-466-4.

Website: <http://www.iospress.nl/book/construction-materials-and-structures/>

The full process was conducted as follows:

1. Abstracts were invited from prospective delegates. The deadlines for these abstracts as well as the papers were set as stated in the attached brochure.
2. The abstracts were reviewed; for those abstracts that were accepted, delegates were invited to submit papers.
3. The papers received were then reviewed and comments transmitted to the authors. Details of the paper review process are given in http://www.iccmats-uj.co.za/Abstracts_and_Papers.html
4. The authors were then requested to prepare a short paper of three (3) pages, from the reviewed paper. The short paper was published in the printed conference book while the full length paper was published in CD-Rom

Sincerely,

Prof. Stephen O. Ekolu, (ICCMATS Co-Chair & Coordinator)
